than necessary managing your company finances?

Get a Second Opinion

from a firm of chartered accountants who have provided specialist advice to limited company contractors since 1996.

There are 18 questions we will ask. The answers are crucial in determining if you are operating your own company compliantly, most tax-efficiently and with the minimum time and effort. We will also provide you with a financial illustration – you should be achieving a return which matches this.

A 20 minute discussion on the phone with one of our senior staff will either give you peace of mind or indicate how you might change the way you operate your company.

This service is offered free of charge for all limited company contractors and you are under no obligation to engage planIT Services.

Compliance

We explain compliance, ensure your company is properly set up, help you determine your IR35 status both in terms of your working practice and written contract, ensure your are following expenses rules and have made proper provision for the payment of tax.

Maximising Income

We consider your salary and payroll set up, your use of expenses, your VAT status and registration and your plans for reducing higher rate tax on dividends in order to maximise income.

Minimising Workload

We help you find the most expedient way to reduce time taken running your company, without affecting compliance or income.

What if we identify problems?

You may already be operating compliantly, tax-efficiently and with the minimum of hassle. If so, we will confirm this providing you absolute peace of mind.

Should we identify problems or areas for improvement, you may make some changes yourself, or if you wish engage us to help you. The choice is yours...
